Revelation

“Then they returned to Jerusalem...”
But how did they wait ?

While they waited for God to deliver His promise:

I. Jesus' disciples remained united and devoted.

A. Who was united?

apostles, women, family

B. What did these disciples do?

They devoted themselves to prayer.

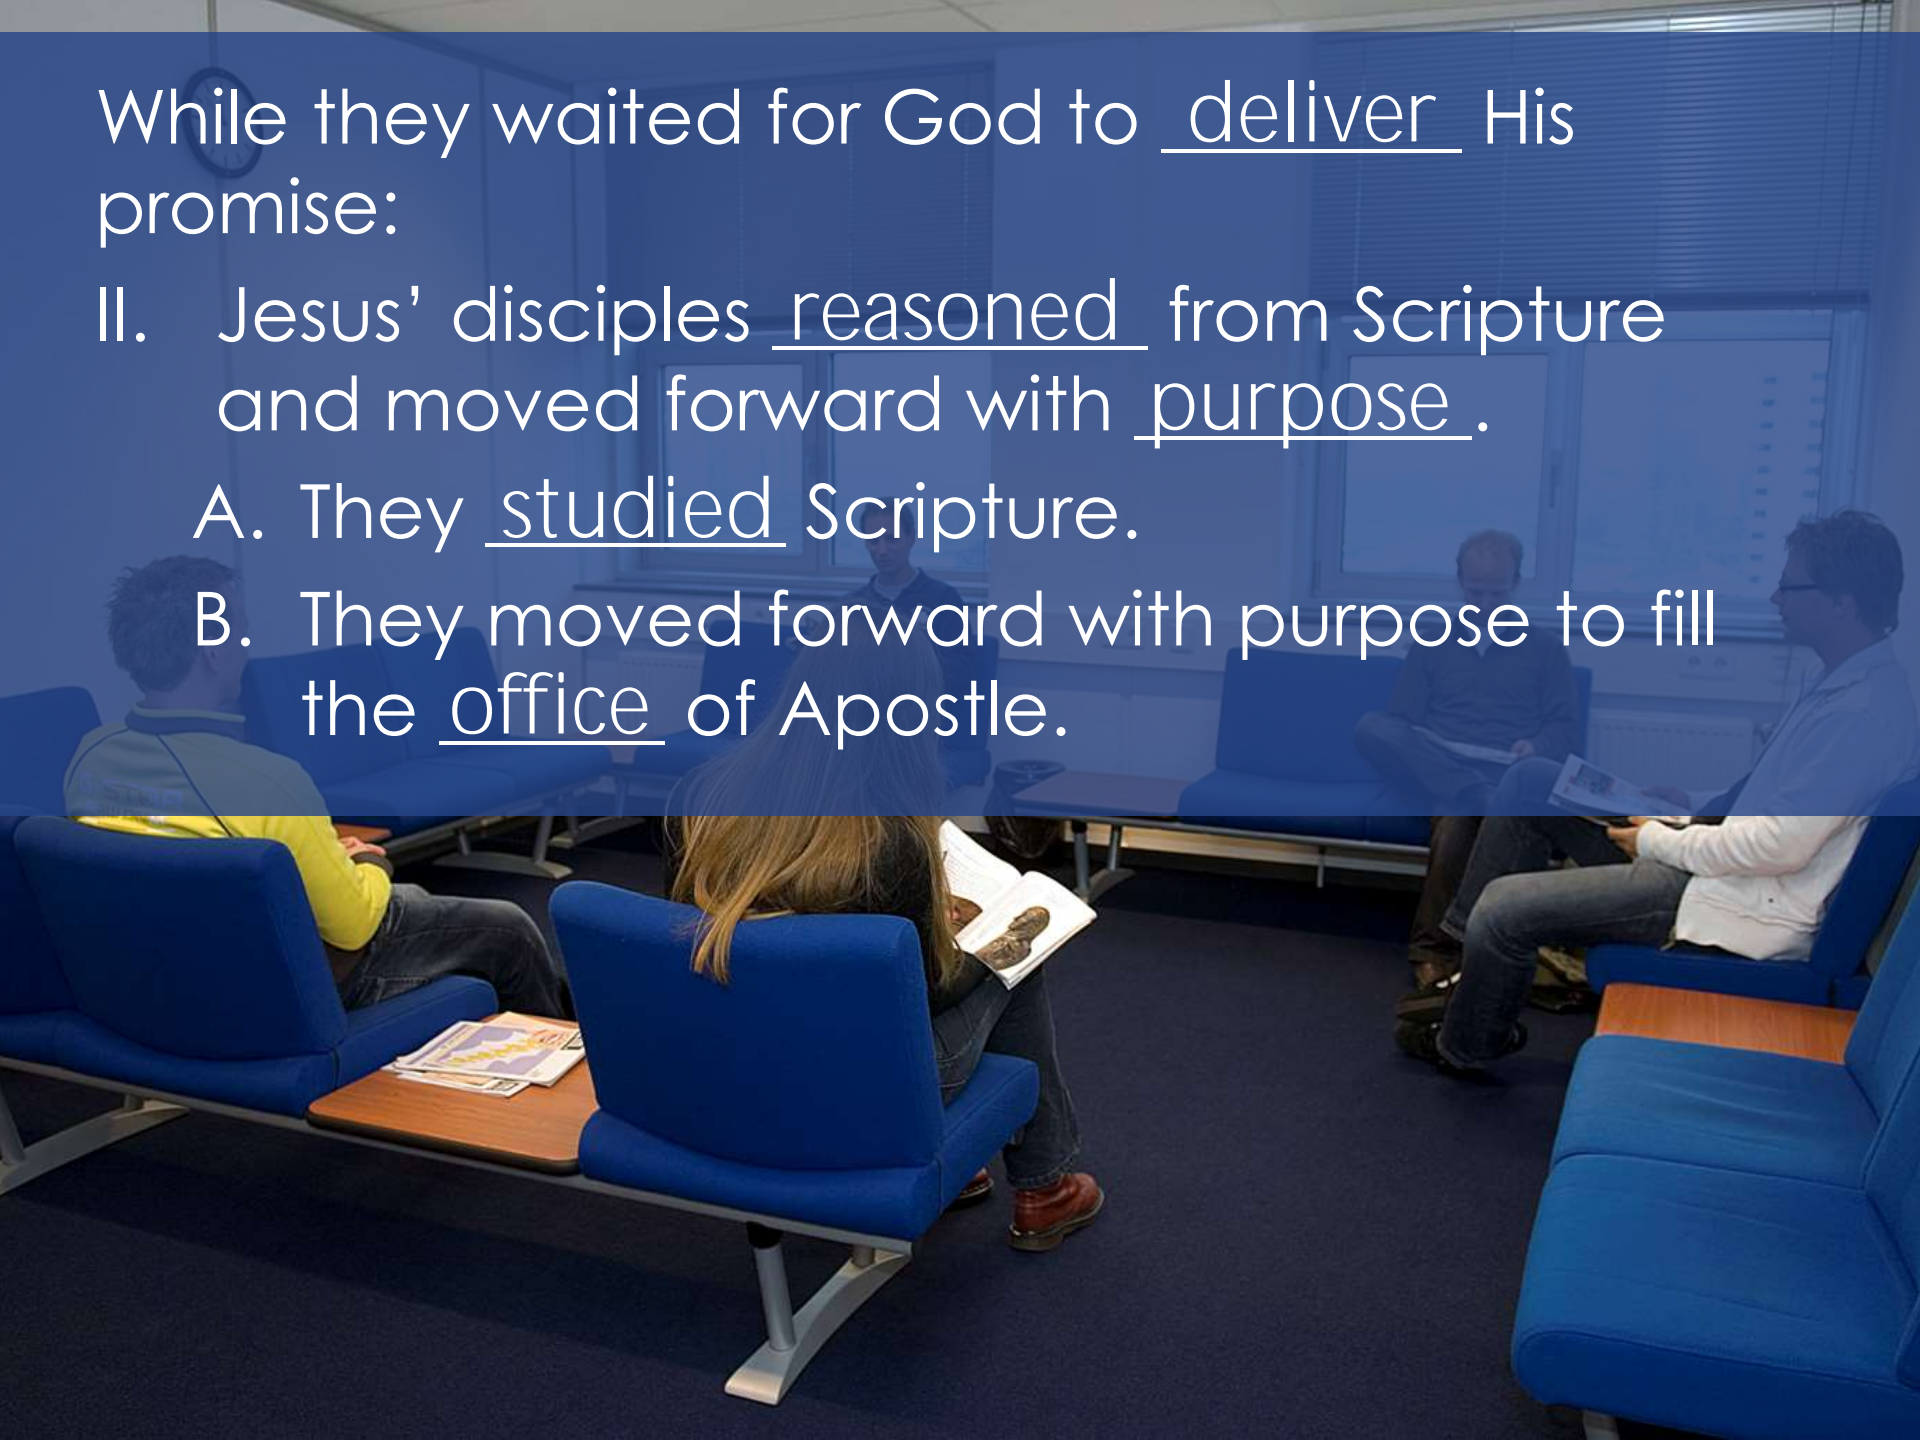

While they waited for God to deliver His promise:

II. Jesus' disciples reasoned from Scripture and moved forward with purpose.

A. They studied Scripture.

B. They moved forward with purpose to fill the office of Apostle.

A group of people are sitting in a meeting room with blue chairs and a whiteboard. The room is dimly lit, and the people are engaged in a discussion. The text is overlaid on the image.

While they waited for God to deliver His promise:

III. Jesus' disciples partnered with God to fill this office of Apostle.

A. They saw failure in the person, not the office.

B. They let God decide who would fill this office.

C. Never lose respect for an office established by Christ.

So if you are in God's waiting room, what are you waiting on?

- Identify your spiritual family.
- Commit to intense prayer.
- Study scripture.

Actively wait on the promise of God.

GOD

YOU

Our mission:

To be a magnet, drawing people who need Jesus
to know and grow in him.
