God needed to work on the hearts and willingness of the people of Israel to get them ready for the battles they would be facing.

God needed to get them ready by...

- I. Lowering the morale of the enemies!
 - A. The army of Israel hadn't even raised a sword and they were already feeling defeated !
 - B. In Christ, we don't come to a place of victory, but rather we come from a place of victory!

God needed to get them ready by...

II. Renewing the covenantal rite of circumcision.

A. God made a covenant with Abraham and circumcision was the sign of the covenant.

B. It was an act of faith and spiritual preparation.

God needed to get them ready by...

III. Once again observing the Passover.

- By partaking of the Passover, Israel was to relive their deliverance from Egypt.

God needed to get them ready by...

- IV. No longer having them depend on manna!
- A. They now had fruit and grain from their land!
 - B. The day they started eating from the abundance of their land, the manna stopped!

God needed to get them ready by...

- V. God needed to get Joshua ready by having an encounter with the Captain of the Lord's Army.
 - A. Joshua needed more in his preparation for victory. He needed an encounter with God!
 - B. Was Joshua asking the right questions?
 - C. God is not with us to fight our battles but we are to join Him in the role of soldier / servant.

God needed to get them ready by...

V. God needed to get Joshua ready by having an encounter with the Captain of the Lord's Army.

D. Removing the sandals was a sign of servanthood, respect and of submission.

May we, as we look over the battles and tasks that lay before us, look up and see the Captain of the Lord of Hosts and remove our sandals!!

Our mission:

To be a magnet, drawing people who need Jesus
to know and grow in him.
