I. Truths being taught in these hard Joshua stories we need to work through

A. God is wearing more hats than just friend and savior.

- God is the ultimate legislator (rule maker).

- God also wears the hat of the judge.

- God is the head of the justice department.

B. The wages (payment) of sin is death.

C. Sin makes God's anger burn.

II. A couple of things the Bible is teaching in the Joshua 8 story

A. Everything belongs to God.

B. God is the God of second chances.

III. Great guidance for our worship today

A. Very careful preparation

B. The experiential offering of sacrifice

- The burnt offering showed complete devotion to God.
- This part of worship was tangibly expressing to God that you are all in.
- It was experiential.

III. Great guidance for our worship today

C. A reverence for God's written word

- They read every last written word.
- They made sure the visitor heard them.
- They made sure their smallest children heard them.
- These words are LIFE!
- Blended worship is laid out here for us.

A majestic lion with a thick, golden-brown mane stands on a weathered log. The lion is looking directly at the camera with a calm expression. The background is solid black, which makes the lion and the log stand out prominently. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the lion's fur and the grain of the wood.

Our mission:

To be a magnet, drawing people who need Jesus
to know and grow in him.
