I. Mark 6:14-29 tells a story within a story.

It helps if we know if we are listening to a rigid historical narrative

OR

if we are listening to a good storyteller who is historically accurate.

II. Mark 6:14-16 tells a story and a back-story.

The story...

The back-story...

The background is a dark, textured blue surface, possibly representing water or a rocky terrain, with subtle variations in tone and some small, bright specks scattered throughout.

III. One more story within this story
Confronting modern day myths

- What about your story?
  - Jesus grieved John's death but He celebrated His life.
  - Will Jesus do the same for us?
