Good morning and welcome to Dayspring! You are not here by accident – you are here for a reason. We have every expectation that we will experience the presence of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in our worship time as we sing, pray, give tithes and offerings, and hear a Christ-centered message from Scripture. You are encouraged to lean in and worship.

Camp Luz - Women's Silence and Solitude Retreat - September 11-12, 2020. In this season of COVID-19 we have had to pivot with much of our programming here at Camp Luz. We are pleased to share that the Women's Retreat is happening, but with another significant pivot. This 1-night retreat will utilize a silence and solitude based personal retreat format. Each woman will have her own room or cabin, be provided with a devotional (or use your own) to help focus your time, and have access to several prayer stations as well as the lake, trails, and grounds of the camp. Meals will be provided in a socially distanced setting.

IGNITE 2020 Conference for Women - This year we are switching to a mini Ignite on Saturday afternoon September 12 only. The building will be open for quiet, personal worship from 3-4 PM. Then at 4 we will hear from Beth Tenley and Pastor Jan Wickline who have been preparing their stories to share with us! This is for women and girls only, but feel free to invite your friends! No registration or fee is required.

Everence Wednesday Webinars – On Wednesday, September 9, Everence is launching the first of an 11-week Wednesday Webinar series to engage people in various financial topics. Some of these webinars are designed to challenge people in their thinking on finances (e.g., Simplicity: Finding focus and decluttering our lives; and Biblical Basis for socially responsible investing) and others are geared toward addressing practical issues (Developing my estate plan and Make Medicare an easy step). For a full list of webinars, to get more information, or to register visit www.everence.com/webinar-wednesdays.

Mark 14:12-25

The Passover with the Disciples

And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him, "Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" And he sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us." And the disciples set out and went to the city and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. And when it was evening, he came with the twelve. And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me." They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, "Is it I?" He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me. For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

Institution of the Lord's Supper

And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, "This is my blood of the[c] covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."
