4:6-21	Chapter 7

I. We do speak wisdom.

A. Yet...

1. We know nothing but Christ, and him crucified, yet we still speak wisdom.
2. Our message is more about a demonstration of Spirit and power, yet we speak wisdom.
3. There is a futile wisdom of the world, yet we speak a productive, Godly wisdom.

I. We do speak wisdom.

A. Yet...

B. We speak this wisdom to others.

C. To the world this wisdom will often be hidden.

D. The world often won't understand this wisdom.

I. We do speak wisdom.

D. The world at times will call this wisdom foolish.

E. What the world calls foolish are actually the most awesome things of God

II. Godly wisdom comes from the Holy Spirit.

A. Holy Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

B. Holy Spirit is only one who understands the thoughts of God.

C. Holy Spirit helps understand gifts God freely gives.

III. Wonderful results from the wisdom the Holy Spirit gives

A. We speak wisdom not taught by humans but by the Holy Spirit.

B. We interpret spiritual truths to those who are spiritual.

C. We can discern if what we are hearing are words taught by men or by the Holy Spirit.

D. We have the mind of Christ.

A branch with several green leaves hangs from the top right corner over a body of water. The water is calm, reflecting the leaves and the bright sun flare in the background. The sun flare is a bright, circular glow in the upper left quadrant, creating a soft, hazy atmosphere. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of green, from vibrant to soft, and a touch of blue from the sky.
