4:6-21	Chapter 7

There are two things Satan wants to steal:
God's glory and human souls.

Paul is speaking of people who have been faithful as servants of Christ and as stewards of the mysteries of God.

- I. How one should regard leaders.
- A. View us as servants of Christ .
  - B. View us as stewards of the mysteries of God .
  - C. We are not denying that we are accountable .
  - D. Paul is battling mission drift .

- II. Stewards are trustworthy to God, the Master.
- A. Paul is relentlessly pressing a nerve.
  - B. Think about this from human employment.
  - C. While Paul is not aware of anything against himself, even that doesn't mean much.

III. I've applied these things to us for your benefit.

A. Just as this is true of us this is true of you.

B. Tune your ear to Christ as He instructs you when and how to put your oar in the water.

C. Steward the mysteries of God that you have been entrusted with.

Know whom you serve and what mysteries of God
you have been given to steward .

A branch with several green leaves hangs from the top right corner over a body of water. The water is calm, reflecting the leaves and the bright sun flare in the background. The sun flare is a bright, circular glow in the upper left quadrant, creating a soft, hazy atmosphere. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of green, from vibrant to soft, and a touch of blue from the sky.
