This message needs to be heard for what it is:
Doctrine .

I. We know Paul can be hard to understand. II Peter 3:14-18

A. Paul wrote according to the wisdom given him.

B. Some had taken what Paul wrote and made it something it was not.

C. “But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ...”

II. We know this was an issue of honor.

I Corinthians 11:3-10

A. Jewish men cover their head when they pray.

B. Women were expected to cover their heads.

III. We know Paul is advocating for grace, discernment, and patience.

I Corinthians 11:11-16

A. Verse 11 Nevertheless ...

B. Verse 13 Judge for yourselves ...

C. Verse 16 If anyone is contentious ...

The image features a central green field with a white border. The field is surrounded by yellow borders, which are further defined by red lines. Scattered throughout the yellow borders are several green leaves of various sizes and orientations. The text is centered in the green field.
