1 Corinthians 2:2 Jesus Christ and Him
crucified .

I. Resurrection | 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

A. Paul has witnesses.

B. Just seeing is not believing.

C. It is not possible to be a friend of God and an enemy of Jesus.

II. Redemption I Corinthians 15:12-19

A. The message of the Gospel is not of conformation but of transformation.

B. Know the difference between conforming and being transformed.

C. It is through Jesus that we are redeemed.

- III. Restoration I Corinthians 15:20-28.
- A. For ALL who are IN Christ.
 - B. Complete restoration happens in the end.
 - C. Restoration also involves destruction.

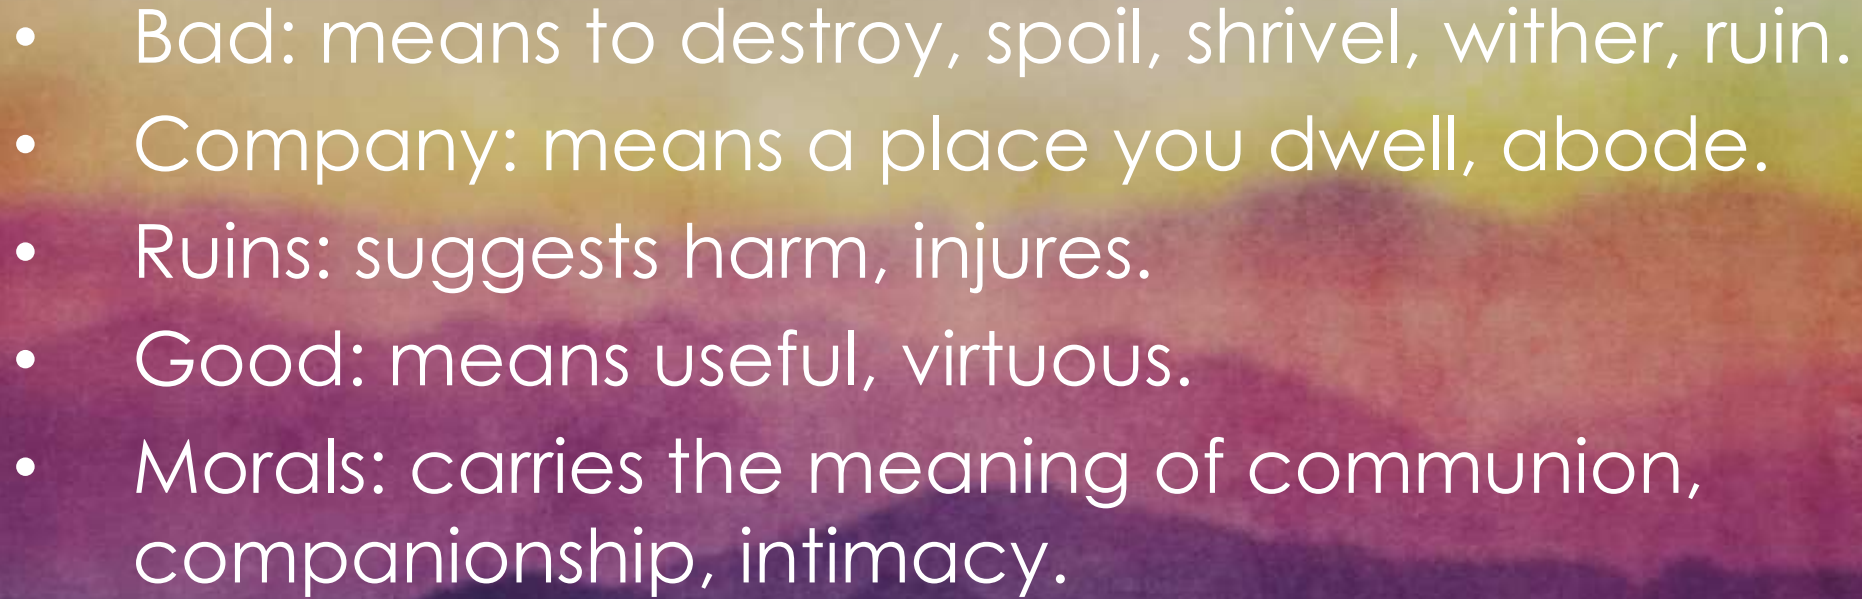

IV. Correction I Corinthians 15:29-34

A. Once again it can be difficult to understand.

B. But not 15:33-34.

C. An _____ that is destructive will harm intimacy and communion.

D. Wake up from this _____ clouded thinking. Do not go on _____.

- Bad: means to destroy, spoil, shrivel, wither, ruin.
 - Company: means a place you dwell, abode.
 - Ruins: suggests harm, injures.
 - Good: means useful, virtuous.
 - Morals: carries the meaning of communion, companionship, intimacy.

IV. Correction I Corinthians 15:29-34.

A. Once again it can be difficult to understand.

B. But not 15:33-34.

C. An environment that is destructive will harm intimacy and communion.

D. Wake up from this drunken clouded thinking. Do not go on sinning.

Living in a bad environment
(known or unknown) is harmful.

You have the authority through the power of the Risen Christ to experience the redemptive, resurrecting, restoration power of God in the very places that are killing you.
