I. The Call

A. Jesus' words are upside-down: they talk of behaviors that are counter - cultural.

B. They are not a checklist.

C. They are the hallmarks of being a Christian.

D. To have any chance of exhibiting these characteristics, you must first surrender.

II. The Example

A. To see what it looks like to embody the Beatitudes, look no further than the example of Jesus.

B. Jesus did this through a heart focused on servicing the Lord.

III. The Mission

A. Why did God call us to be counter-cultural? Because we are citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven.

B. As salt, we act both as a seasoning and as a preservative.

C. As light, we illuminate and bring clarity to what was once obscured.

III. The Mission

D. To fulfill our mission, we obediently carry it out.

E. We can only do this when we have servant hearts.
