I. Questions we need to ask

A. Who were these Wise Men? Gentiles

B. What was their specialty? scientists

C. Who told them what to look for? God

D. Why did they come? To find the King

II. Lessons we need to learn - Romans 3:1-4a

A. Jews were entrusted with the Oracles of God.

B. Having the advantage does not mean you are more worthy or that you will reap the benefit.

C. 'Oracles' means sayings or utterances of God.

II. Lessons we need to learn Romans 3:1-4a

D. Given for the purpose of being both receptors and transmitters of what they were told

III. Examples worth following

- A. How much truth do you need to know before you move ?
- B. The Wise Men did not know all there was to know.
- C. They give us an example of what it means to step out in faith.
- D. God blessed them for the journey they began in faith.

A stylized illustration of a night sky. The sky is dark blue with numerous small white stars. A large, bright yellow star with four points is positioned in the upper center. A crescent moon is visible on the left side. Below the sky, there is a silhouette of a city or town with several buildings and arches. The background behind the city is a gradient of orange and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall style is modern and minimalist.

Whatever God has given is enough until He gives you more.

A stylized night landscape with a full moon, mountains, and a lighthouse beam. The scene is rendered in a low-poly, geometric style. The sky is dark blue with scattered white stars. A large, bright yellow full moon is positioned on the left side. The mountains are depicted in various shades of blue and dark blue, creating a sense of depth. On the right side, a lighthouse beam of bright yellow light shines upwards, illuminating the sky. The overall mood is serene and hopeful.
