

MOVING THE NEEDLE TOWARD BELIEF

Mark 9:24

The New Testament

Matthew

Mark

Luke

John

Acts

Romans

I & II Corinthians

Galatians

Ephesians

Philippians

Colossians

I & II Thessalonians

I & II Timothy

Titus

Philemon

Hebrews

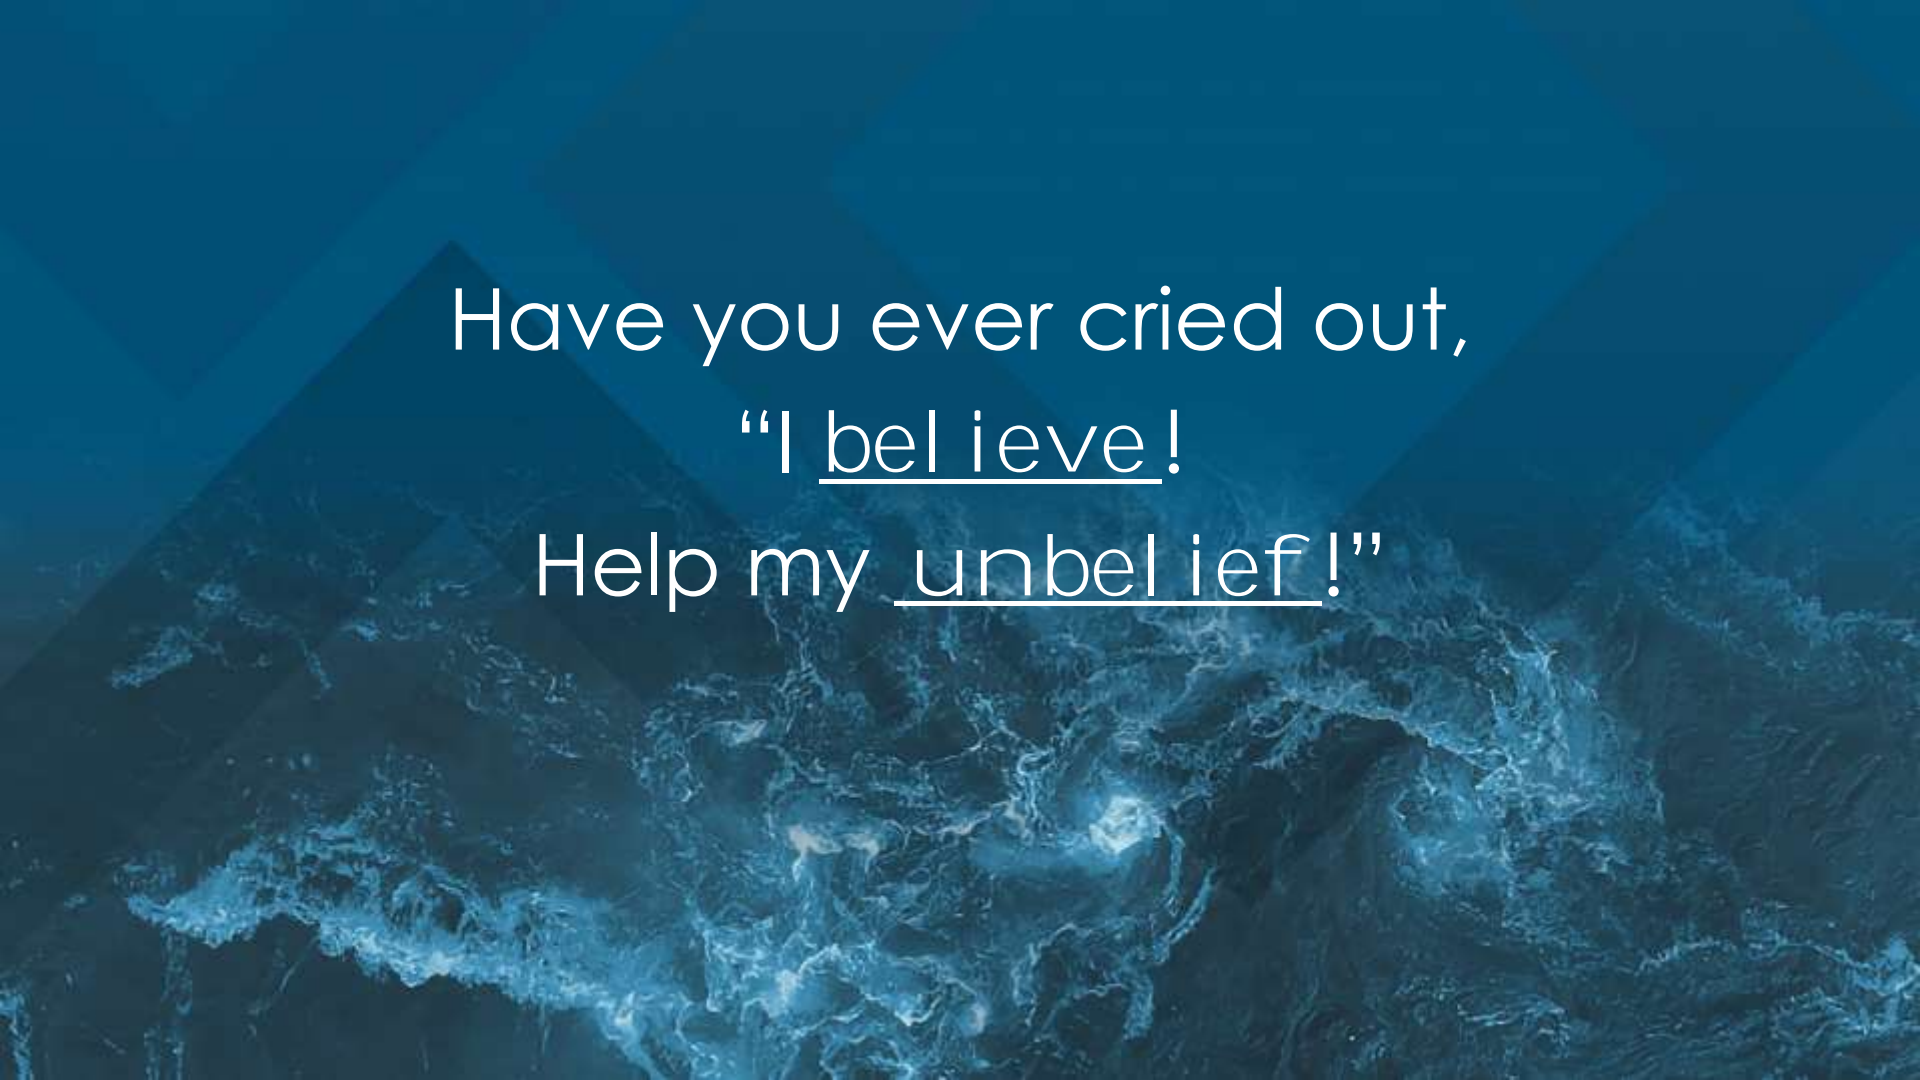

James

I & II Peter

I, II, & III John

Jude

Revelation

Have you ever cried out,
“I believe!
Help my unbelief!”

I BELIEVE

HELP MY

UNBELIEF

I. The narrow context: a desperate father longs for his child to be delivered and healed.

A. This is a discerning father.

B. Before they get to Jesus, they reach Jesus' disciples.

C. Jesus engaged the father and restored the son.

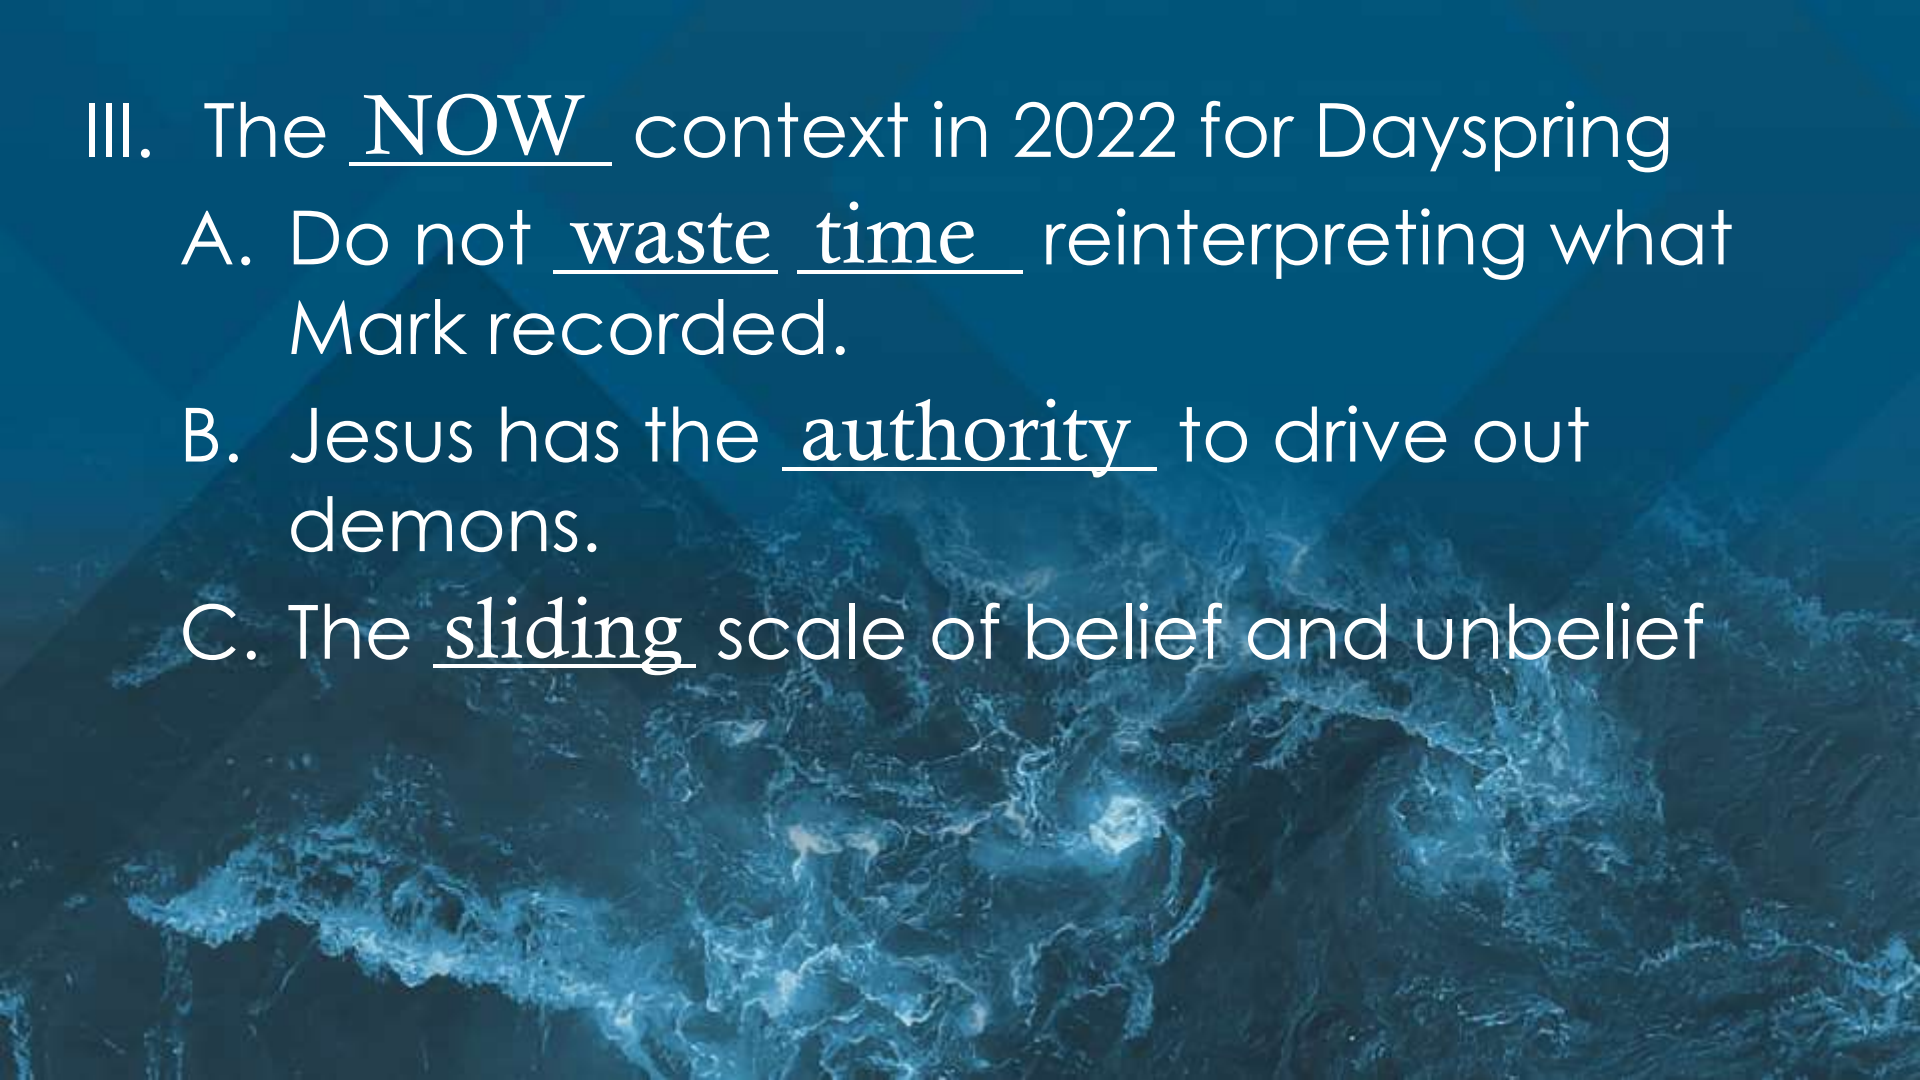

D. Jesus educated His disciples.

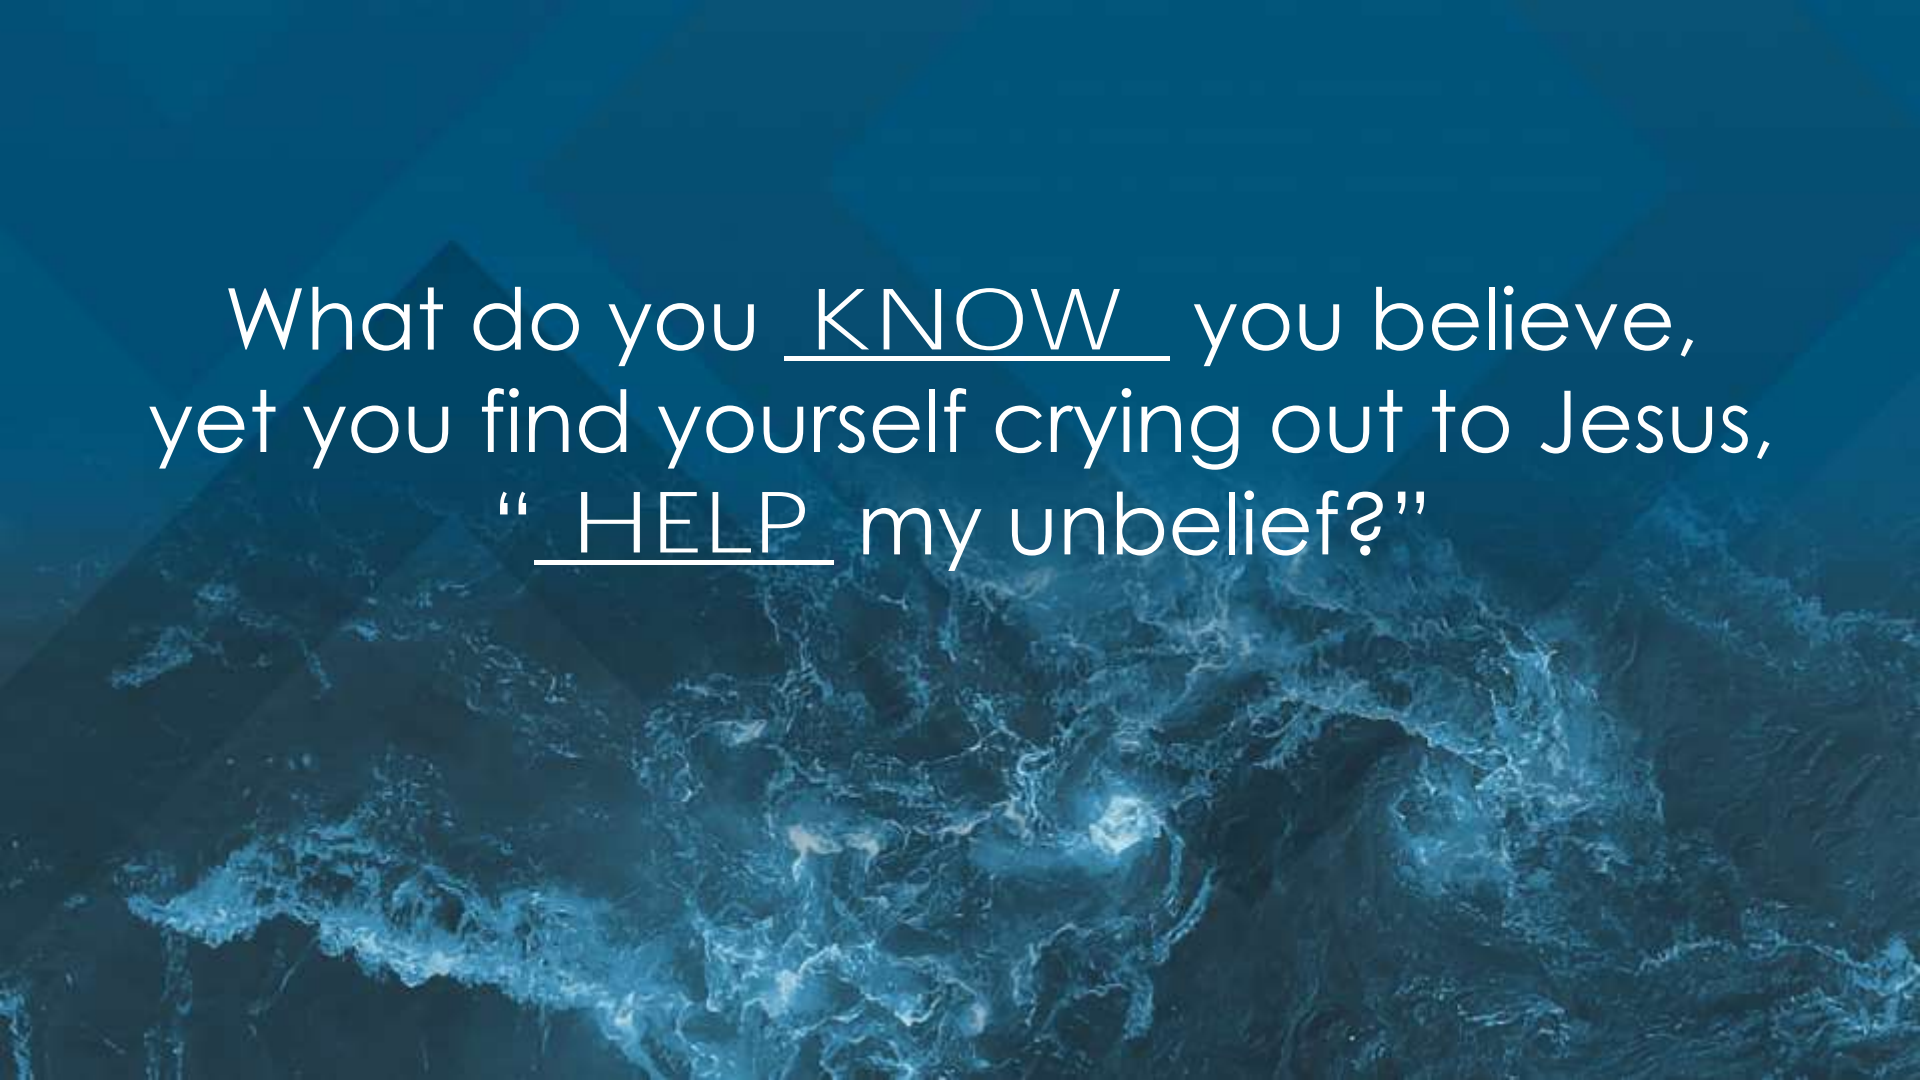

II. The extended context: Jesus spent time with His Father.

A. Jesus had an encounter with God the Father, (Moses and Elijah).

B. Jesus was prepared to command this spirit to come out and never enter this child again.

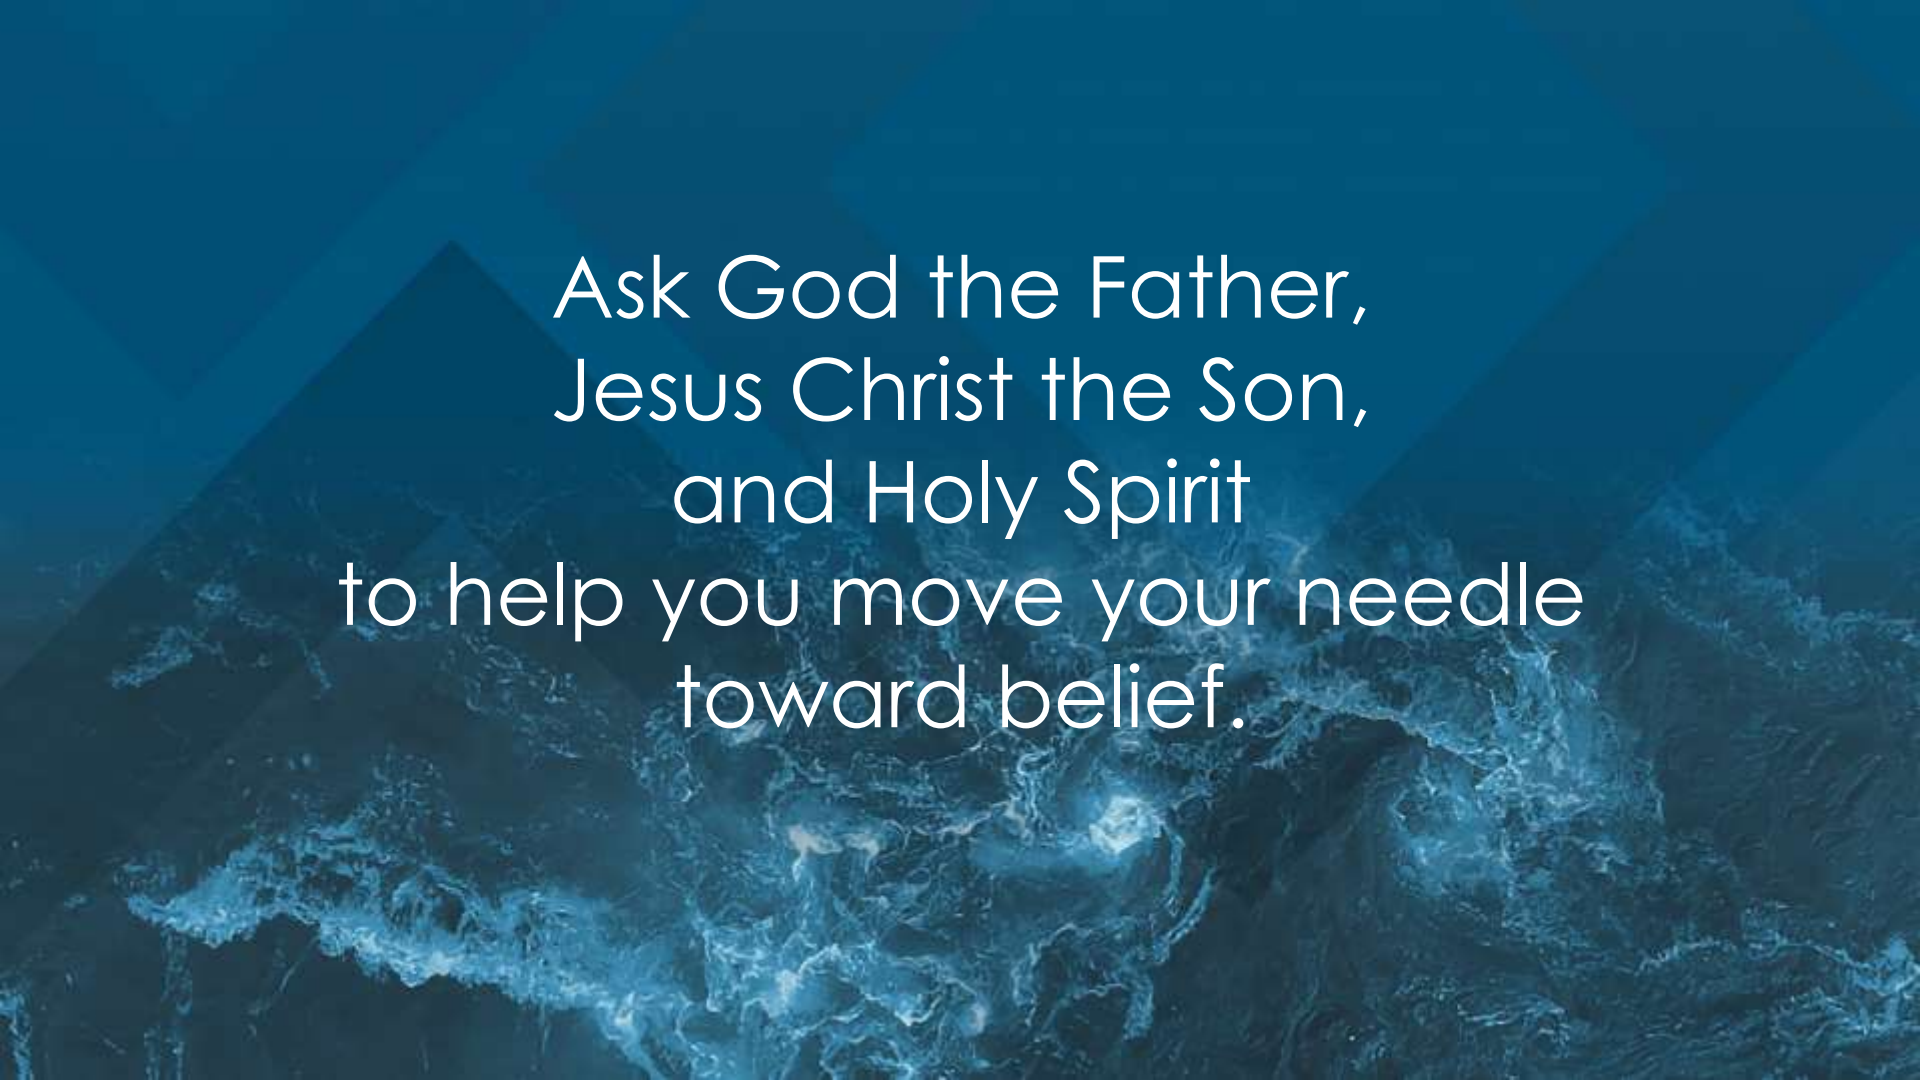

C. There are mysteries that we live with.

-
- III. The NOW context in 2022 for Dayspring
- A. Do not waste time reinterpreting what Mark recorded.
  - B. Jesus has the authority to drive out demons.
  - C. The sliding scale of belief and unbelief

What do you KNOW you believe,
yet you find yourself crying out to Jesus,
“HELP my unbelief?”

The background is a dark, monochromatic blue. In the upper left, there is a silhouette of a mountain peak. The lower half of the image is filled with a complex, glowing pattern that resembles a nebula or a starburst, with bright white and light blue highlights against the darker blue background. The text is centered in the upper half of the image.

Ask God the Father,
Jesus Christ the Son,
and Holy Spirit
to help you move your needle toward belief.

I BELIEVE

HELP MY

UNBELIEF