I. The Choice

A. You will always end up serving someone or something.

B. A tempting master for many is _____.

- Matthew 6:24 is written as an _____ - _____ statement.

No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.

-Matthew 6:24 ESV

I. The Choice

A. You will always end up serving someone or something.

B. A tempting master for many is money.

- Matthew 6:24 is written as an either - or statement.

After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. So Jesus said to the twelve, “Do you want to go away as well?” Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God.”

-John 6:66-69 ESV

I. The Choice

C. Where else can we go when we've seen the one who has eternal life?
(John 6)

D. Joshua's declaration was to help lead his whole house into serving the Lord.

II. The Reasons

- A. With Abraham's family, we see it's all about God's grace and goodness.
- B. In Egypt, we see God's provision, deliverance, and help.

II. The Reasons

C. Never is it about the Israelites' greatness, strength, or abilities.

D. We often see the Israelites need to be reminded of how God has never failed them.

...that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, “What do those stones mean to you?” then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial forever.

-Joshua 4:6-7 ESV

Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen and called its name Ebenezer; for he said, “Till now the Lord has helped us.”

-1 Samuel 7:12 ESV
