The “today” message of Isaiah is what Isaiah saw on the other side of the canyon.

A highway of unified worship:

I. Had to sound ridiculous to Israel.

A. Egypt and Assyria were not friends.

B. Israel was seen as both _____, and a _____ between the two.

A highway of unified worship:

I. Had to sound ridiculous to Israel.

A. Egypt and Assyria were not friends.

B. Israel was seen as both inconvenient, and a buffer between the two.

A highway of unified worship:

II. “To Jehovah ALONE” had to seem inconceivable.

A. In that day there will not be a “spiritual pot luck.”

B. In that day God (Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit) will be the centerpiece of their worship.

C. In that day they will worship together!

A highway of unified worship:

III. Is not a political solution but an eternal one.

A. In their day the people had a hard time seeing past political solutions.

B. Like a lot of prophecies this prophetic vision is yet to be fully fulfilled, but there have been times when this has been seen in part.

God is the Great Architect and He is designing a highway to worship.
