- A photograph of a church interior with a group of people. In the foreground, a person is seen from the side, looking down. The background shows other people, some with their hands raised in prayer. The lighting is soft and the overall atmosphere is solemn.
- I. God's message to us is never without hope.
 - Out of desolation will come victory.

II. Everyone will be held accountable for their actions.

- The result of not honoring God is a destructive curse.
- But the result of choosing Jesus is not the punishment we deserve; it's a beautiful eternity.

III. The destruction of the old, of the sinful, will make way for the new, the Godly.

- After the darkness, God himself will emerge as the Light.

IV. We can trust that God's promises are true, and they are worth celebrating.
