- I. The Servant of the LORD has been chosen by God.
 - A. This is so that He can bring justice to the nations.
 - B. The Servant works to carry out God's covenant.

II. The Servant will be a Light for all the nations.

- He does this by humbling himself.

III. The Servant is obedient.

A. He uses the gifts that God has given him.

B. He is an obedient listener.

C. What is done out of obedience to the Lord can never be a cause for our shame.

IV. The Servant will have to endure suffering.

A. He knows grief and sorrow because he carries our sin.

B. The wounds that are inflicted on him bring healing to the world.

C. He doesn't try to defend himself.

D. There's a purpose to his suffering and death.
