Isaiah 40:8

The grass withers, the flower fades,
but the word of our God
will STAND forever!

I. Hezekiah believed the Lord and cried out to Him.

A. Hezekiah heard: knew it was the word of God.

B. Hezekiah turned his face to the wall.

C. Hezekiah pled his case.

II. God heard his cry and gave him another word.

A. "Isaiah, turn around and go back to Hezekiah."

1. I have heard you.

2. I have seen your tears.

3. I am adding 15 years to your life.

4. I will deliver you and this city.

5. I will defend this city.

II. God heard his cry and gave him another word.

A. "Isaiah, turn around and go back to Hezekiah."

B. How can you be confident? Here is your sign.

III. With blessings come new levels of Godly Adulging.

A. Guests show up and Hezekiah shows them everything.

B. Instead of stepping up he sat down.

C. Hezekiah is content to hear that there will be peace and security in His days.

I want another season of Ebenezer experiences.

If God grants me a new season
I don't want to waste it.

New seasons begin with desperate cries.

New seasons demand that we confess/give witness to the powerful,
miraculous shaking and shifting of God.

New seasons require new levels of spiritual adulting.
