Becoming more like Jesus is what true freedom really is.

I. Freedom does not look like circumcision.

A. If you accept ...

B. Faith in the Law accepts what comes with it.

C. To accept this means you are then severed from Christ.

II. Freedom has Re-defined boundaries.

A. Freedom redefines, not erases boundaries.

B. What are the right boundaries where I can KNOW true freedom?

III. Freedom is living into the other side of the filter without going back or looking back.

A. Do not use freedom as an opportunity for the flesh.

B. Freedom dwells in the shelter of God and lingers His shadow.

C. We cannot live under the cloud of a religious spirit.

IV. Freedom looks like fruit that looks like Jesus .

A. Freedom begins by knowing who your Father is.

B. Freedom means love your neighbor as yourself.

There is no freedom outside of the boundaries of Jesus
but fullness of life within.

“It is for FREEDOM that Christ has set us free.
Stand firm therefore, and do not submit again
to a yoke of slavery.”

A teal fishing net is draped across the frame, creating a textured, grid-like pattern. The net is slightly wrinkled and has a soft, ethereal glow. The background is plain white.
