- A landscape painting featuring rolling green hills in the foreground, a winding path that leads towards the distance, and a range of mountains in the background. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall color palette is dominated by greens and blues, with some brownish tones on the mountains.
- I. We have Nicodemus.
    - A. A Pharisee
    - B. The supreme court

- II. This part of the story, I would label teacher vs. savior.
- A. Truly, Truly, one must be born again to enter the kingdom of God.
  - B. Truly, Truly, you must be born of water and the Spirit.
  - C. “Truly, Truly, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen, but you do not receive our testimony.”

III. He is speaking prophetically to Nicodemus.

A. In verse 13, He speaks about his birth.

B. That is a prophesy about the cross.

C. Believe in him, and you will receive eternal life.

D. He didn't come to condemn us, he came to save us.

A teal fishing net is draped across the frame from the top-left corner towards the bottom-right. The net is made of a fine mesh and has a thicker rope along its edges. The background is plain white.
