I. The Set-Up

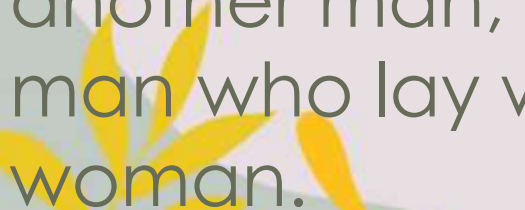

- A. It's the day after the Feast of Booths, and Jesus has gone back to the temple to teach. And as He does, He is interrupted by the Pharisees.
- B. They've come up with a scheme to trap Him.
- C. They make sure that it's a public test.
- D. It is meant to be a lose-lose situation for Jesus.

Leviticus 20:10

If a man commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

Deuteronomy 22:22

If a man is found lying with the wife of another man, both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman.

II. The Response

A. At first, Jesus doesn't even engage.

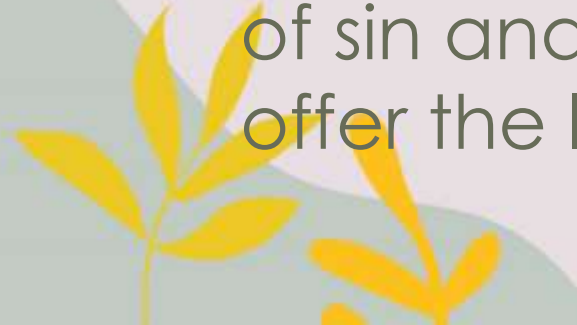

B. There's wisdom in His silence.

C. The Pharisees thought they were asking a “yes or no” question, but Jesus gives an unexpected answer.

III. The Lesson

- A. Even though Jesus as Lord had the right to condemn, He didn't.
 - B. He's also the only one with the authority to forgive.
 - C. The Pharisees were living under the law of sin and death, but Jesus came to offer the law of the Spirit of life.
