Jesus asked:

“Do you take offense...” at what
I am teaching?

Jesus was teaching the necessity of believing and knowing that Jesus has the words of eternal life.

- I. Jesus had earned the right to be heard.
 - A. Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount.
 - B. Jesus did many miracles in Capernaum.
 - C. Now Jesus was back in Capernaum teaching.

II. When Jesus' teaching got hard many of Jesus' disciples grumbled and were offended.

A. Many disciples found His teaching hard.

B. Not much has changed.

C. Yet the message of Jesus is really GOOD News.

III. Those closest to Jesus had nowhere else to go.

A. Jesus' teaching was hard and relentless.

B. Jesus asked the 12 if they also wanted to leave.

Lord: "He to whom a person belongs." Thayers

C. Believing and knowing Jesus as Lord is the key.

There are a lot of scandalous messages
being preached these days,
but Jesus is not the reason for the scandal.

Are you all in for Jesus
or do you have someplace else to go?
