

FROM FAITH, FOR FAITH, BY FAITH

Romans 1

- I. Paul's letter to the church in Rome is an introduction.
  - A. Paul longs to establish an in-person connection with the church in Rome.
  - B. Paul's main goal is always to preach the Good News of Jesus. He is not ashamed of the Gospel.

- II. The Gospel was given from faith, for faith, so that we may live by faith.
  - A. From faith: The Gospel was given to us by God, through Jesus Christ.
  - B. For faith: God revealed the message of faith so that we could participate as believers.
  - C. By faith: Every aspect of our living should come from our choice to live by faith.

- III. Everyone can know God through His creation.
  - A. Everyone has a choice: we can either honor God, or reject Him.
  - B. For those who reject God, God gives them over to their selfish desires.
  - C. These behaviors are opposite the fruits of the Spirit.

- IV. The antidote to ungodliness and unrighteousness is FAITH!

Through faith and repentance, the Holy Spirit works to renew and transform us.
