

WHAT'S IN THE RIVER?

1 Samuel 17

- I. Because of their DISOBEDIENCE in following God's command to drive out the foreign peoples, God let the Israelites suffer the consequences.
 - A. 350 years later, the people are still facing THREATS from the Philistines.
 - B. When Saul and the Israelites hear Goliath's challenge, they are DISMAYED and GREATLY AFRAID.
 - C. They did THE OPPOSITE of God's command.

- II. Goliath's challenge goes unanswered for 40 days, until DAVID shows up.
 - A. David was a GOOD SHEPHERD.
 - B. David FULLY TRUSTED God.
 - C. He trusted God so much that he went into battle without any armor because it wasn't the RIGHT armor.
 - D. David shows us what a real KING acts like.

- III. Sometimes the things that look the most HELPFUL actually end up being the most BURDENSOME.
 - A. There was no sword in the hand of David, and yet he was perfectly equipped because of his FAITH in the Lord.
 - B. What are we trying too hard to HOLD ON TO?
 - C. What equipment are we OVERLOOKING?
