

Rise and Follow Me: ALL IN!

Luke 5:1-11; John 21:1-19

- I. Peter went from being a follower who SHOWED UP to a disciple who ROSE UP and GREW UP.
  - A. Because of what Peter's seen and heard, he trusts Jesus, and follows Him – even when it seems like it will be FRUITLESS.
  - B. When Jesus provides a miracle, Peter responds with HUMILITY.
  - C. He and James and John begin following Jesus ALL IN!

- II. When Jesus walks on the water, Peter again goes all in after Him – this time LITERALLY!
  - A. Peter is the only one brave enough to follow Jesus into the STORM.
  - B. And when many other followers turn away, Peter remains COMMITTED to following Jesus all in.
  - C. When Jesus washes the disciples' feet, Peter again goes all in: "Not my feet only, but also my HANDS and my HEAD!"

- III. I'M just like Peter.
  - A. No matter how hard I try to follow Jesus, I will always FALL SHORT.
  - B. But that's WHY Jesus did what He did on the cross.
  - C. Like Peter did, we can run to Jesus without SHAME or CONDEMNATION.

- IV. The command never changes: FOLLOW ME!
