God I am ready to rise up and follow you like never before. Too often I've walked my way instead of yours. I am asking you to make clear to me what you want me to do for my next step. I realize it may be a step I've never even considered before. But if you make your will clear, I will do what you say. God I'm listening. Speak to me and show me your face however you see fit. I'm going to keep asking until you speak
