

Our Permanent Address

II Corinthians 5:1-10

- I. Paul assures his readers of their PERMANENT ADDRESS.
- II. The tents that Paul refers to are our HUMAN BODIES.
  - A. Paul was very aware of their (tents) WEAKNESSES and limited durability.
  - B. Our human bodies are not meant to last FOREVER.
- III. Our temporary residence will be replaced with our permanent HEAVENLY HOME.
  - A. We have the PROMISE of our final home.
  - B. The HOLY SPIRIT inside us assures we RECOGNIZE our permanent address.
- IV. Groaning: deep longing or suffering, both PHYSICAL and SPIRITUAL
  - A. We are CONFINED to our mortal bodies.
  - B. You and I, we are HOMESICK.
- V. We are of GOOD COURAGE.
  - A. God will not LEAVE us or FORSAKE us.
  - B. Our faith and trust in God will give us STRENGTH in the face of trials and persecution.
  - C. We are not to merely EXIST and ENDURE in this life.
- VI. What does this mean for us as we rise and follow Jesus?
  - A. We cannot STAY at base camp.
  - B. We do not LEAVE ANYONE BEHIND.
  - C. We need to BRING others along.

Do we know our permanent address? Are we living life in God's promises of eternal life, through Jesus Christ?
