

LAST JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM

Engaged in the King's Business

Luke 19:11-27

- Jesus continued to make the most of EVERY OPPORTUNITY.
  - Jesus ENGAGED in His Father's business.
- I. Jesus told this parable about what would happen IN THE FUTURE.
    - A. His followers would need to be FAITHFUL and PRODUCTIVE.
    - B. The nobleman ENTRUSTED his servants with his funds.
    - C. To entrust means to commit something valuable with great TRUST and CONFIDENCE.
  - II. The servants were to ENGAGE in business until their master returned.
    - A. Jesus KNEW His Father, UNDERSTOOD His assignment, and was OBEDIENT.
    - B. BY FAITH, we engage in God's business.
    - C. We are not only instructed to engage in business, but have HOLY SPIRIT engagement!
  - III. The servants all ENCOUNTERED their master upon his return.
    - A. There were CONSEQUENCES for their obedience and disobedience.
    - B. The CHOICES we make have CONSEQUENCES.
    - C. We are called to engage in the BUSINESS of building God's Kingdom.
- Who or what has God entrusted to you?
  - Have you been actively engaged in your assignment from God?
  - At your end, what kind of encounter do you anticipate regarding your care of what has been entrusted to you?
